HISTORIC COURSE OF KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION SCENE OF GREAT ACTIVITY.

Directors of Association Request State Racing Commission to Modify Its Ruling Under Which Telegraph Wires Are Barred from Track.

Lexington, Ky., April 25.—Two days in advance of the opening of the Kentucky Association's annual spring meeting, the historic old racing ground presents a scene of great activity. Racing Secretary Shelley completed this afternoon the distribution of badges to all save the late comers and he has everything in his department in readiness for the opening. Track superintendent Ross has the grounds, course and stand in the best possible condition. He reports every available stall within the enclosure and near the grounds taken. Gene Elrod, the capable supervisor of the pari-mutuel machines and betting enclosure, has everything in his department ready to begin work as soon as the entries close tomorrow morning for the first day's racing.

The directors of the association at a special meeting today adopted a resolution embodying a request to the Kentucky State Racing Commission that the rule forbidding telephone or telegraph wires on the ground be rescinded. This request will be presented to the commission at its meeting Saturday morning. Secretary Garrett Wilson says he believes the commission will modify its ruling when it is made apparent to its members that the taking of the wires from the grounds has proved a great inconvenience and annoyance to the newspapers and individuals, and has not prevented the poolrooms and handbooks in various parts of the country from getting the racing information.

There were many horses at exercise on the track this morning, but there were few sensational moves. Archie Zimmer's Caugh Hill ran five-eighths in 1:00⅘, the half in :47⅖, and this was the best trial at that distance. Round the World showed a half in :48. The Manager galloped a half in :51⅗ and looked as if he could have run in :47 had he been called upon for speed. Coppertown, Inquieta and King Stalwart broke from the barrier and ran a half, the former in :49⅖ and the latter two head and head in 50⅖.

The fastest mile of the season was shown by Jack Weaver's good three-year-old filly Lady Lightning, a candidate for the Phoenix Hotel Spring Handicap and the Kentucky Oaks, when she ran it in 1:41⅘. Fashion Plate, from W. H. Karrick's string, worked a mile in 1:42⅖. He pulled up lame, but walked out of it.

The Hallenbeck stable, which embraces the much-admired three-year-old Worth, suffered another delay. Trainer Frank Taylor wired Charles H. Hughes today that he would be here tomorrow morning.

Thomas P. Hayes and C. C. Van Meter brought their strings from Louisville this morning, the former having twelve and the latter nine horses.

The stables of L. P. Doerhoefer, George J. Long, Miller Henderson, Dan Lehan and others will be in from Louisville tonight or tomorrow morning.

Captain P. M. Walker and G. W. J. Bissell have left Jamestown with six horses each and will be here tomorrow.

Robert Davies, the wealthy Toronto business man who owns Calgary and other good youngsters that Charles T. Patterson is training this season, was here today. He came from Norfolk and left tonight for Pimlico, whither his string was shipped from the Virginia track. Mr. Davies' purpose in stopping off here was to see his trotting stallion, Judge Parker, 2:10¼, in Clem Beachey's string, and incidentally to get a line on any good three-year-old thoroughbred that he might buy. He went to the track and saw The Manager, looked also at Sonada and made some inquiries about Worth. He talked as if the best is what he wants if their owners will price them not too high.

LITTLE FAST WORK AT LOUISVILLE.

Figures Showing Benefits of Pari-Mutuel System of Betting—Zeinap Goes Wrong.

Louisville, Ky., April 25.—As most of the Kentucky Derby candidates worked yesterday, the most asked today of the crack three-year-olds was the usual slow and steady work. In fact, there were few trials at the Downs this morning. The only Kentucky Derby candidate to show much speed this morning was the filly Flamma and she only cantered a half in 52⅖. There is some talk that she may go to the post in the Derby, but the stable information seems to put her in the doubtful starters class. She is sure to start in the Kentucky Oaks, however.

The best work of the morning was done by Cockspur, one of Henderson & Hogan's Latonia Derby eligibles. He went three-quarters in 1:15⅖, covering the first half in 49⅗. Other work-outs were:

Cash on Delivery—Five-eighths in 1:03⅘; first half in 50⅖.
Dr. Jackson—Three-eighths in 38⅗; first quarter in 25⅘.
Golden—Three-quarters in 1:17; first five-eighths in 1:03⅕.
Pass On—Three-eighths in 38⅗; first quarter in 25⅘.
Sebago—Five-eighths in 1:10; first half in 52⅘.
Spindle—Three-quarters in 1:17⅕.
Winning Widow—Five-eighths in 1:04⅘; first half in 51.

James Griffin brought nine horses here from Charleston. They are the four-year-old Fairy Story, the three-year-olds Chartier, Letourno, Pierre Dumas, Miss Menard and Miss Juneau, and the two-year-olds Jacob Bunn, Arminda and Idle Tale. Jacob Bunn is a bay colt by Hippodrome—Hurrah. Arminda is a sister to the noted horse Czar, and Idle Tale is a chestnut filly by Superman—Idle Fancy. The filly Miss Juneau will only be raced during the coming meeting at the Downs and then will go to the stud. Mr. Griffin says that Debacle, the dam of Haubridge, has a filly by Ben Brush this season and she will be mated with Voter.

The books of the Louisville Jockey Club show a wonderful increase in the money added to stakes and purses since the pari-mutuels were installed here as the official method of betting. In 1909 the money added by the association to stakes and purses averaged $2,450 per day; in 1910 it had reached $2,760 per day; in 1911, $3,575, while this season it will total over $4,000 per day. During the first seven days of the meeting this spring the average daily distribution will be $5,500. There could be no stronger recommendation for the pari-mutuels.

The once good race mare, Zienap, owned by W. F. Schulte, has gone wrong in training and has been sent to the Schulte farm to be retired to the stud. She is now nine years old and will be mated in the next few weeks with George J. Long's noted stallion Sempronius. Zienap, as a two and three-year-old, was a stake winner on the New York tracks, and in later years she scored frequently in less important races. One of her feats was the running of a mile in 1:38⅘.

Harry Breivogel, who is officially connected with the Churchill Downs, Latonia and Juarez tracks, arrived here today and will remain in Kentucky until racing is suspended in mid-summer. Mr. Breivogel will go to Lexington tomorrow night.

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING OWNERS OF 1912

H. G. Bedwell is still far in advance of all other American winning owners of the present year and not likely to be dislodged from his leadership for some time. His nearest follower, W. A. Massey, being under disqualification from racing, has no further standing as a competitor and must soon be passed by owners now below him in stable earnings. Kentucky racing being right at hand with rich stakes and good purses to be won will bring into action some strong stables that have taken no part in winter racing and these will not be long in acquiring places in the list of thirty leaders. If one owner should be fortunate enough to win the Breeders' Futurity at Lexington and the Kentucky Derby at Louisville, as T. C. McDowell, for instance, might, the proceeds of the two races alone would suffice to place him second to Mr. Bedwell. At present the thirty leading owners and their stable records are the following:

CANADIANS LOOKING FORWARD TO AN EXCEPTIONALLY SUCCESSFUL RACING SEASON

Toronto, Ont., April 25.—The spring days have been here some little time according to the calendar, but the men whose pursuit it is to prepare racehorses for their best efforts on May 18 are not convinced of that seasonal fact. The winter's record was a satisfactory one in most Canadian stables, as to health and condition, but the late coming of the warm days that trainers need has caused some uneasiness. The turf, though, has striking optimism as one of its most delightful characteristics, and puting present worries behind them everybody anticipates that the year 1912 will produce the most gratifying season in the history of Canadian racing. Every prospect pleases and a note of expansion and high anticipation pervades everything. The patronage extended by the recent occupant of the post of Governor-General of Canada is continued and emphasized by the royal prince who now occupies the office in which Earl Grey did so much to endear himself to the people of Canada. His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, is a member of the Jockey Club in England and he shares the genuine interest in the turf felt by his revered mother, to whom Canada owes what is now the oldest continuously run racing fixture on the American continent, whose stud farm produced some of the greatest horses of recent times, and who regularly honored English racing with her attendance. That interest was continued and increased by the active participation of King Edward VII. and King George V., so that it is seemly and fitting that the dignity of the Viceroy should enhance and encourage the progress of the sport here.

"The decay of racing in the United States, where the politician has made a great industry and recreation subsrvient to his ephemeral fortunes," Francis Nelson writes in the Toronto Globe, "is not likely to have its parallel in this country for many years. Not until the influence of the blood that dominates Canada has completely disappeared will come the fulfillment of Whyte Melville's prediction:

For if once we efface the love of the chase
From the land and uproot the stud
Then good-bye to the Anglo-Saxon race
And farewell to the Norman blood.

"It is interesting to find," he continues, "the opinion held by an Oregon correspondent of The Kentucky Thoroughbred Record that this is really the key to the situation and that what has come to pass in regard to racing followed naturally from the change in the composition of the American people. Here is what the correspondent referred to, says: 'The Anglo-Saxon race said good-bye and the Norman blood bid farewell to the United States many year ago. Within the last eighty or ninety years there has been such an enormous influx into this country of people from the continent of Europe, that the Anglo-Saxon race has become so completely swamped and submerged and that race is in such a hopeless minority now—that it cannot possibly exert the slightest influence upon the American people any more. Of the one hundred million people now in this country, as to at least eighty millions of them the following remark is perfectly true, namely: That not one of them can trace to a single ancestor who was in this country at the time of the war of 1812, to say nothing of the war of 1776. Hence my remark that no two races of people on this earth differ more widely from each other in every respect than the English and American races. I care not one jot or title on which side lies the superiority; that interests me not at all.'

"While the students among our neighbors trace the causes of a movement without a parallel—no other civilized country prohibits betting on race courses—it is our part to so cultivate our better fortune to the end that it may continue and grow stronger and more deserving each year.

"The feeling of confidence has concrete expression in the establishment of a magnificent new course at Ottawa, and in the extensions and improvements elsewhere. Conspicuous among these latter racegoers at Hamilton and Windsor will this year find elaborate provision for their comfort and convenience. Toronto readers are particularly interested in the improvements at the former place. They will find this year a new stand, 225 feet long and eighty feet deep, of thoroughly fire-proof construction, roomy, airy and handsome, a treat to the eye and a comfort to occupy. Everything is on a generous scale, and nothing is being overlooked that can add to the enjoyment of the club's patrons. A new entrance from the railway, a covered driveway at the rear of the stand, dining rooms, retiring rooms and other features testify to the careful interest with which the whole plan has been made. The handsome clubhouse, with broad verandas and balconies will surely increase the membership in proportion to its undeniable attractiveness."

St. Bass, the winner of last year's King's Plate will have more company than last spring when he comes in from Oakville tomorrow to take up quarters at Woodbine. Seven horses comprise the lot that the Cedar Grove Farm sends in this spring. Of the new ones the two-year-olds Hearts of Oak, Venus Urania and Ondrameda will attract most attention. They would command respect anywhere, for in no country are to be found three more magnificently-developed specimens of the young thoroughbred. Hearts of Oak is a half-brother to Wire In and War Whoop, being a son of the Greenback mare, Lady Lightfoot II., a veritable gold mine for her owner. His sire, Bassetlaw, is a vastly better-bred and more successful stallion than Wickham, which begot the two colts that first brought Cedar Grove Farm into prominence. Hearts of Oak stands over sixteen hands high and girths some seventy-three inches. Venus Urania and Ondrameda are as fine fillies as he is a colt, and the whole string are in such beautiful condition as to testify to the close and incessant care bestowed on them throughout the winter. The horses are in charge of Harry Giddings, the younger, and are as follows:

Bird Cage, ch. f, 3, by Wire In—Burdette.
Hearts of Oak, b. c, 2, by Bassetlaw—Lady Lightfoot II.
Ondrameda, ch. f, 2, by Bassetlaw—My Honey.
Ondramon, ch. g, 3, by Pan Lougin—My Honey.
St. Bass, b. c, 4, by Bassetlaw—Lady Betz.
Venus Urania, br. f, 2, by Bassetlaw—Lady Betz.
Widow Wise, ch. f, 2, by Bassetlaw—My Maryland.

St. Bass is the picture horse he was last spring, when Mr. Giddings refused to consider an offer of $6,000 for him. That this decision was a wise one was demonstrated when Mr. Giddings achieved the ambition of every Canadian owner to win the King's Plate with a horse of his own breeding, and with the additional satisfaction that the skill of his son prepared St. Bass for a record-breaking race. Though he did not run after midsummer, St. Bass won $6,890, and is still Mr. Giddings' property.

The gift by their royal highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, was not long in producing results. The purchase of Plate Glass by Robert Davies of Thorncliffe was inspired by the aim to be the first to win the Connaught Cup, and other owners are also in the field for similar material. The slashing black gelding which Mr. Davies has bought becomes a favorite with every one who sees him in action. He never asks to be placed, but goes out to make the pace, and it is a good horse that can live with him. Plate Glass runs fast and far, and is almost indifferent to weight. Last year for Mr. Randolph he won fifteen races worth over thirteen thousand dollars.

At Windsor the improvements are on an extensive scale. "We will have the largest and finest grandstand in Canada when the work is completed," said President Hendrie. The new structure is well under way, the frame being up and the roof on. It is of steel construction, on a cement and brick foundation, the brickwork being carried up to form the first story. Within the space of its 340 feet of length and seventy feet of depth there will be ample room for new offices, dining rooms, lavatories and all the accommodations required for the comfort of great crowds. Four thousand patent folding chairs will comprise the seating, and two galleries run the full length of the stand, above and below, with a projecting balcony in the rear. The pavilion for the use of the pari-mutuel system next year will be located at the back of the northern end, and will be a building 120 feet long.

The new stand occupies all the space from the bleachers beyond where the old ring was to the end of the old stand, and is so much deeper than the old one that it was necessary to move the back fence, and take in new ground for the entrance of carriages and motors.

The only horses training at Windsor this spring are those of Ed. Glassco, which have been confined to work on the pleasant sandy roads down the river. His two Platers, Prince Polo and Joe Gaiety, are doing well, and the latter is shaping like a useful racer, as his mother was, though she showed no liking for a journey as long the Plate distance. The other fellow is by Makaland, a highly-bred Hanover horse, owned by the late Sol. White. Prince Polo was once second and twice third in his four starts last year. Joe Gaiety also ran four times, but in superior company, and was unplaced each time.

George M. Hendrie has eight horses in training, all two-year-olds, seven at Louisville, and the other at Hamilton with E. Whyte, this being the only home-bred. The lot at Louisville are in charge of John Walters. They were mostly bred at W. O. Parmer's Edenwold Farm in Tennessee, and wintered at Gallatin in that state. They are:

Great Britain, ch. c, 2, by The Commoner—Touch Not.
Hibernian, ch. g, 2, by The Commoner—Bessie McCarthy.
Loch Lomond, br. g, 2, by Lord Esterling—Flora Handsome.
Lord Lucre, b. c, 2, by Lord Esterling—Lucrece.
Rifle Brigade, b. g, 2, by Star Shoot—Kentucky Belle.
Tecumseh, blk. c, 2, by Lord Esterling—Ohiyesa.
Writ, br. f, 2, by Lord Esterling—Brief.

KEEN CONTESTS AT NORFOLK

KORMAK WINS HANDICAP EASILY, BUT OTHER RACES ARE HOTLY CONTESTED.

Good Things Galore in Owners' Consolation Race, Won by Rubia Granda—Grecian Bend, Best Backed, Has Poor Luck and Finishes Third.

Norfolk, Va., April 25.—Well balanced fields furnished keen contention at the Jamestown Jockey Club's course this afternoon. A majority of the winners scored by small margins and few of them had anything in reserve at the finish. The card was made up of seven races that included a consolation handicap for horses that have not won at the meeting, and an owners' consolation selling race, for horses the property of owners who had not won a race this year. Kormak proved the best in the handicap. He was a well backed favorite and, after overcoming early interference, won easily by a couple of lengths from Superstition, the top weight of the race. Kormak ran his mile in 1:40⅕, which marked a good performance.

There were as many good things in the owners' consolation race as there usually are in races for maidens. Grecian Bend was backed from 40 to 1 to 5 to 1, and but for a bit of bad luck in the early running would have rewarded her backers handsomely. As it was, she came from last place at one period of the running, to be beaten only half a length and a head. The winner turned up in Rubia Granda, also well backed by a select few. The fact that her connections paid $110 in forfeits for which she was in arrears in order to start the mare was known to a few and they profited handsomely.

Speculation was keen and sixteen layers were in line.

The colors of the Canadian owner, W. G. King-Dodds, were conspicuous during the afternoon. They were carried to victory in the third race by Camellia, while Lord Elam beat a band of shifty platers in the closing dash. The latter was ridden by Butwell, who gave his mount a rousing finish.

Ponkatasset, winner of the opener, a dash of half a mile for two-year-olds, ran in the name and colors of R. P. Kyle, who purchased the filly from A. G. Weston just before the latter left with his horses for Pimlico. The new owner shifted riders, taking Diggins down and substituting Butwell. It was well this was done, for the filly's victory was due to the vigorous finish that Butwell made. The race resolved itself into a struggle through the homestretch between the first three and at the end Ponkatasset managed to last long enough to lead Dogwood home by a neck, with Deborah third, another head away.

Day Bell, which finished second to St. Abe in the steeplechase, promises to develop into a useful 'chaser. In today's race he fenced in bold fashion and in the stretch drive he was wearing St. Abe down. Jockey Eddie Martin probably will leave for Lexington Saturday night to ride the Cesarion colt Forward in the Breeders' Futurity. Jockey Joe Byrne has been engaged to ride one of Thomas C. McDowell's representatives in the race.

The Walker Stable will leave for Kentucky tomorrow morning.

Frank Shannon arrived from St. Louis this morning, where he spent a couple of weeks after the close of the Juarez meeting. Mr. Shannon will book at Pimlico.

Frank J. Bryan, the Jockey Club steward, left tonight for Pimlico to take up his duties at that track.

Several stables left today for Baltimore, among them those of A. G. Blakeley, A. G. Weston and Robert Davies.

Some of the trials this morning were:
Casque—Five-eighths in 1:08.
George S. Davis—Mile in 1:46.
Mon Ami—Five-eighths in 1:05.
Reybourn—Mile in 1:45⅗.
Rosseaux—Three-quarters in 1:23.
Sandhill—Three-quarters in 1:20.

H. G. BEDWELL IN CHICAGO.

H. G. Bedwell, America's most successful horseman of the present day, passed through Chicago yesterday en route from Charleston to Coeur d'Alene, where he plans to race this spring. His horses are on the way west and will reach the Coeur d'Alene track on Sunday next. Mr. Bedwell will also race at Lagoon and on the Montana tracks. He plans to dispose of the major portion of his stable of twenty-seven horses before fall, when he expects to return east with about a dozen horses.

Mr. Bedwell, who has a faculty for keeping informed with regard to racing prospects in various sections of the country, is firmly of the opinion that racing will be continued at Charleston next winter in spite of the recent legislative enactments against betting in South Carolina. His confidence is based on the policy of non-interference in Charleston affairs pursued by the state authorities of South Carolina. Local sentiment, he avers, is strongly in favor of a continuation of racing.

Mr. Bedwell has also received encouraging information of the status of movements for the restoration of winter racing at New Orleans and in California. The recently elected governor of Louisiana is credited with having expressed himself in favor of local option on the subject of racing, and it is represented that the people of New Orleans are in favor of a revival of the sport that contributed to the prosperity of the Crescent City in former years. A local option plan is also under consideration in California.

CLOPTON-MASSEY RULING STANDS.

New York, April 25.—The Stewards of the Jockey Club yesterday sanctioned the Maryland Jockey Club's autumn meeting from October 30 to November 9 at Pimlico and also granted the Jamestown Jockey Club permission to give an autumn meeting at Norfolk, Va., from November 11 to November 30.

Further reports on the case of W. A. Massey, S. A. Clopton and jockey Hopkins were submitted to the stewards. The suspension of W. A. Massey's trainer's license and the order against the entries of W. A. Massey and S. A. Clopton were continued indefinitely. Jockey Hopkins' suspension was ordered terminated.

Various jockeys and trainers licenses were granted as recommended by the license committee. The application of D. E. Lindsey for a jockey's license was denied.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

At the Le Tremblay races in France Wednesday W. K. Vanderbilt's colt, Gibelin, which had not run for some time, won the race for horses that had not won this year. Six started.

I. S. Mahan, secretary of the Oklahoma City Jockey Club, was a visitor at Latonia Wednesday, being the guest of Manager John Hackmeister. Mr. Mahan is in Kentucky studying the operations of the pari-mutuel machines, as his track intends to use them this summer. Manager Hackmeister has given orders for the tickets to be used at Latonia this spring. A larger supply than ever before has been ordered, in anticipation of the greatest meeting ever held.

CANADIAN PROSPECTS BRIGHT.

All the youngsters are from producing families, and the stable should cut some figure in the two-year-old racing of the circuit this season. Rifle Brigade is a brother to Kentucky Beau, and Loch Lomond to Paul Davis. Writ is a sister to Bob Co. and Great Britain a brother to Notasulga. The good horse Peter Sterling, one of the most useful animals in training a few years ago, was a brother to Lord Lucre. The home-bred Spray is a sister to Rockspring. Trainer Walters has also his own horse, McIvor, at Louisville, and the lot may not come north till after the Kentucky meetings.

Though the Valley Farm Stable name will not be used this year, the family whose racing livery is the brown and yellow jacket, so popular on the Canadian turf, will be doubly represented. Separate establishments are now maintained by Col. Hon. John S. Hendrie and George M. Hendrie. The former took over the home-breds, and will probably continue to draw his supply exclusively from horses eligible for Canadian-bred events. Trainer Ed Whyte, brought up in the Hendrie traditions, and in charge in the days of the stable's greatest successes, has returned to the task of preparing those owned by Colonel Hendrie. He has now at the Hamilton Jockey Club track the following:

Brant, ch. g, 2, by Martimas—Blue Grouse.
Commola, br. m, 5, by The Commoner—Losiola.
Denham, ch. g, 8, by Derwentwater—Cottonade.
Golden Syrup, b. g, 2, by Ailes d'Or—Butterscotch.
Le d'Or, ch. g, 3, by Ailes d'Or—Talala.
Pekisko, ch. g, 3, by Martimas—Rosina Vokes.
Powderman, ch. c, 4, by Martimas—Lyddite.
Rockspring, ch. c, 3, by Martimas—Springwells.
Spray, ch. f, 2, by Martimas—Springwells.
White Caps, ch. g, 3, by Martimas—Splash.

The last-named is the property of George M. Hendrie, whose other horses are at Louisville, Ky. Rockspring, Pekisko and Le d'Or are the Plate candidates. Le d'Or did not run at all last year, and was sent back to the farm about mid-summer, so that he is quite a dark horse, and all the worse prospect as a Plater because of his backward condition. He is a rugged sort of colt and, like his sire, might stand a hurried preparation better than most horses. On both sides he is bred to stay the Plate distance, and in a year when nothing stands out decidedly he may be counted among the runners.

Pekisko ran four times as a two-year-old, and did not make an impression, but Rockspring demonstrated the possession of high speed and gameness in his races. In fact, but for falling one day at Windsor, it is not at all likely he would be among the Plate eligibles this year. He has more racing experience than any other Plater, as he ran ten times, two seconds being the only occasions when he was in the money. As noted, he fell once when he looked like a certain winner, and one day at Windsor he lost another apparently easy chance when he was pulled up at the start because jockey Foden feared a jam. Unfortunately, though, the best Plate prospect of the stable has developed a lameness that has put him out of training for the present. The seriousness of the trouble, a sort of inward splint, is not yet definite.

The two-year-olds are fine, big colts, but green. Brant is the picture of Martimas in shape, color and markings. Both should win races. Spray is the property of George M. Hendrie. She is a sister to Rockspring, on a rangier scale, though just now she is carrying a lot of superflous flesh. Powderman needed time last spring, and the additional year finds him a decidedly improved animal. Though he was able to run a mile and a quarter last spring better than 2:10, it turned out that there was in St-Bass another capable of even more than that record performance for a Plate horse. The big, growthy son of Lyddite was nearer his best in the fall, and won the Stanley Stakes, earning nearly three thousand dollars in all before the close of the season. Like White Caps, another winner last year, he will find scope in the Canadian-bred races, which will be more numerous than in other seasons.

This year the flying Denham will undergo the unusual experience of a preparation for the Woodbine spring meeting. It has been the custom to go slowly with him, and in other seasons he has not been seen out before Hamilton or Fort Erie. For all that he began late, he won six of his eight starts last year, and was second in another, his total earnings being $4,625, a fair return from a horse so difficult to keep in training. The feature of his season was his Durham Cup victory, at a mile and three-quarters. Commola was a long time getting out of the maiden class, but she contributed $1,210 to the Valley Farm list of winnings last season. The Hamilton track is so good that training there will be continued till about the first of May before a move is made to Toronto.

The public stable of trainer B. L. Cole holds all the other horses now being prepared at the Hamilton Jockey Club's course. They are:

Breastplate, ch. f, 3, by Armeath II.—Cuirass.
Martinomas, ch. f, 4, by Martimas—Festino.
Oakland Lad, br. c, 2, by Martimas—Irene A.
Punky, b. g, 6, by Commando—Sandfly.
Radation, b. g, 5, by Radford—Miss Matthews.

Punky and Radation are well known, if not especially successful horses. Martinomas is Dr. Groves' King's Plater, by Martimas, from Inferno's sister. Breastplate is a filly bred by Mrs. L. A. Livingston at her Cobourg farm. Oakland Lad is the first of the progeny of Irene A., a well-bred and fast mare that during her racing career was a terror to starters on account of her antics at the post.

MAY BUILD MORE STALLS AT ALAN.

Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, April 25.—Recent work-outs at the Alan track included the following:

Acumen—Mile in 1:48.
Ada Meade—Half mile in 49⅕ and three-quarters in 1:17⅘.
Al White—Mile in 1:48.
Arasee—Three-quarters in 1:19.
Bucolic—Half mile in 50⅕.
Closer—Half mile in 53⅕.
Jack Paine—Half mile in 55⅕.
Silver Stocking—Five-eighths in 1:06.
Tern's Trick—Three-eighths in 36⅘.
Tramotor—Half mile in 50⅕.

The Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association is considering the building of more stalls. While it has been known all along that all the horses could not be housed at the track, it begins to be apparent that the barns at Post Falls and those of nearby farmers will not hold the surplus of racers whose owners are anxious to compete for the Alan purses.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Chas. S., Chicago. Novelty was the favorite at 9 to 5 when he won the Futurity of 1910.

E. R. O'B., Chicago. The place parlay was void as to Colonel Holloway because there was no separate place price against him and you should be paid on Lady Irma and Force at 2 to 1 and 9 to 10.

J. W., Chicago. Under no circumstances could you expect more than the bookmaker's limit, but when that limit was more than could have been had from Silicic's split price after the dead heat, he should have paid the full price, his limit not having been reached.

HORSES RECENTLY RETIRED FROM RACING

The second installment of the records of horses that once were prominent on the American turf and that were last seen in action in 1910 is quite as interesting as the installment hitherto published. As in the previous instance, some highly distinguished names are included in the list, the perusal of which will doubtless recall many interesting incidents of the track. Here it is:

BIG STABLES QUARTERED AT PIMLICO.

Baltimore, Md., April 25.—Practically all the better grade of stables are now here for the opening of racing at the historic Pimlico course on Saturday. The largest string that came in was that of R. T. Wilson, in charge of Tom Healey. They arrived from Belmont Park in tip top condition. This lot numbers seventeen and other than the well-known Aldebaran, Naushon, Olambala, Penobscot and Flying Yankee the shipment consisted of as promising a looking band of two-year-olds as this well-known stable has ever sent to the races.

By Saturday William Garth's entire stable will be on the ground, and as it numbers forty-eight head it is needless to say that he will put in a bid for many a purse during the fifteen days of the meeting. Another large establishment that bids fair to make the meeting interesting is that handled by Bob Walden, which includes, other than his own homebreds, the two-year-olds and older horses of J. E. Davis of New York, master of the Meadow Brook Hunt Club of Long Island, and also those that race under the famous all scarlet of David Hennen Morris.

Another big establishment here is that owned by Thomas Fortune Ryan, in charge of William Carter. These are mostly homebreds, the sires being Ellisdale and Monsieur de L'Orme.

The pretentious stable of August Belmont arrived today from its winter quarters at Belmont Park, in charge of trainer Fuestal.

Superintendent Brennan is a busy man assigning the arrivals to quarters and getting the plant keyed up for the opening.

The horses of John Whalen, Paul Fox, A. Molinelli, Steve Lawler, Jack Goldsborough, the Quincy Stable (now in charge of Eddie Phelan), J. L. McGinnis, Mat Allen, Dick Miller, Jack Dowdell and Ike Jackson will be here tomorrow. This lot all wintered at the Gravesend course. From Sheepshead Bay will come the horses of S. K. Booker, George Perrin, David Gideon and R. E. Watkins.

EASTERN AMATEUR SEASON TO OPEN.

New York, April 25.—The season of amateur racing about New York will be launched Saturday, when the Rockaway Hunting Club will conduct a one-day meeting at Cedarhurst, L. I. This is one of the smaller meetings of the amateur sportsmen, but a good program has been arranged and it serves to open a season that bids fair to be a good one until late fall.

For the racing Saturday the officials announced are:

Stewards—Fletcher Harper, Henry W. Bull, J. E. Davis, A. Butler Duncan, Antelo Devereux.
Judges—H. A. Bourne and E. C. Cowdin.
Starter—J. H. Bradford.
Paddock Judge—Edward S. Voss.
Patrol Judges—H. F. Godfrey, Hamilton Hadden, Albert J. Akin, Henry M. Earle, Alfred L. Norris and Edward A. Lynch.
Handicapper—Frank J. Bryan.
Clerk of the Scales—George W. Gall.

One of the principal races of the day is a handicap for galloways, for which Handicapper Bryan has assigned the following weights:

Culvert, 158; The Thief, 148; Petits Chevaux, 145; Kinderhook, 143; Emily G., 142; Jimmie, 140; Royal, 140.

PONKATASSET, under a vigorous ride, ran in improved form and, leading all the way, hung on resolutely in the final drive. DOGWOOD, always in closest pursuit, moved up with a game challenge after entering the homestretch, but tired finally under punishment. DEBORAH finished fast and was steadily gaining on the leaders with every stride. WILLIS and COUNTERPART were in a jam at the start and knocked out of any chance.

Winner—Ch. g, by St. Leonards—Queenston (trained by L. Garth).

Went to post at 3:05. At post 1 minute. Start good and fast. Won handily; second and third driving. ST. ABE, after being under restraint for the first half mile, took an easy lead when his rider was ready, but was shaken up in the last sixteenth to outstay DAY BELL. The latter fenced well and ran a good race for a green jumper. GUN COTTON fenced cleanly, but could never get up. RACEWELL'S saddle slipped during the race. RACING BELL lost her rider at the sixth jump.

Overweights—Bound Brook, 3 pounds; Racing Bell, 3.

CAMELLIA ran in closest pursuit of the pacemaker for the first half, then wore her down in the stretch and drew away in the last dozen strides. FANCHETTE began fast and showed the most speed for five furlongs and tired in the final drive. RIDGELAND was a forward and game contender from the start. CHILTON TRANCE ran a particularly bad race. Winner—B. c, by Puryear D.—Chiffie (trained by H. Penny).

Went to post at 3:58. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. KORMAK was shuffled back at the start and carried wide around the first turn, but worked his way up on the outside and, moving up with a rush on the far turn, drew away into an easy lead and held it to the end. SUPERSTITION was under slight restraint in the early running and easily disposed of ASPIRIN in the last quarter for second place, but could never get to the leader. ASPIRIN was speedy and, being much used in forcing the early pace, tired in the homestretch. BUSY tired after running well to the stretch. COLONEL HOLLOWAY set the early pace briefly and quit.

Winner—B. g, by Lord Esterling—Kate Elam (trained by J. L. Paul).

Went to post at 5:21. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. LORD ELAM was saved behind the pacemakers for the first five furlongs, then wore GRANIA down in the stretch and was going away at the end. BERTIS closed a gap and, finishing with a rush, outgamed GRANIA for second place. GRANIA showed much speed in early pacemaking, but tired as if short after going a good six furlongs. TROY WEIGHT tired and only ran moderately well. TOM MELTON quit after running in closest pursuit to the stretch.

Scratched—1995^{3}Hedge Rose, 107.
